HISTORY

(The senior class of '62 attended Willshire school for eleven years)

On September 11, 1950, thirty intelligent looking little angels tottered into the first grade. It wasn't long until our wings grew a little shorter—Mrs. Opal Clouse kept us well in hand.

Mrs. Kathryn Griffith was ready to welcome us into the second grade and really hated to push us into the third grade, where we met Mrs. Esther Dellinger.

In the fourth grade, Mrs. Merl Bain taught us to make paper animals. After conquering this great feat, we were willingly passed on to the fifth grade and Mrs. Edith Bowen. Although we liked the fifth grade, we were happy to be passed to Mr. Clark Sipe's sixth grade.

Ah! The seventh grade at last! We could now have our own lockers, class officers, and different teachers during the day. We shared these great privileges with Mr. Ray Black. Most of us also shared the consequences of throwing rock salt in the study hall and in the halls.

Mrs. Laura Rumble tried to control us in the eighth grade. We were season basketball champs and were almost tournament champs. After "sweating out" those horrible eighth grade tests, we were ready to move on. How honored we felt to receive those diplomas! We were really big stuff now.

Here it is, 1958, and we were being pushed into the upper hall. Mr. Theron Ray, our sponsor, and Sandy Maken, our president, pulled us through this hectic year. We had a penny supper followed by two plays, "Custer's Last Sit," and "Headin' for a Weddin'." Many budding actors and actresses came into the spotlight from these great productions.

Miss Glendene VanLandingham tried to hold us down during our Sophomore year. Between her and our president, Mary Jane DeArmond, we managed to act out two more plays and another penny supper. The plays were "The Little Red Schoolhouse," and "Christmas at Casey's." As a project, we sold stationery and kitchen knives. A few of us were very honored to be chosen as servers for the prom.

In our junior year we were very active, doing our share of work as well as our share of trouble. Our sponsor was Miss Naomi Sipe, and our class president was Elmer Roehm. To raise lots of money for our prom, we had a scrapdrive on a lovely, rainy day, and a class play called "The Mutt Family," which didn't bring in too much money. The theme of our prom was "Southern Cottillion" and we were very proud of our abilities because it turned out to be very beautiful.

(Part of the senior class of '62 also attended Rockford school for eleven years)

On September 4, 1950, Mrs. Penn and Mrs. Fishbaugh anxiously awaited the arrival of us as first graders. They were even more anxious to let us go on to the second grade teachers, Mrs. Shindeldecke and Mrs. Hawk. Next, Mrs. Brookes and Miss Mace tried to pound knowledge into our hard heads in the third grade.

Miss Frahm and Miss Rogers taught us about verbs in the fourth grade. We moved into the new addition for the fifth grade under Miss Wolfe and Miss Woodbridge.

We had male teachers for the first time in the sixth grade—Mr. Keoppel and Mr. Foster.

Then came the big step! We got to go to the top floor. Our homeroom teachers were Mr. Hakes and Mr. Arnold. Mr. Arnold liked us so much that he stayed with us for the 8th grade, but Mr. Ault took Mr. Hakes' place in our other homeroom.

We started our freshman year with 58 students. This year was a big change, for we had elective courses. Our class sponsor was Mr. Booher, our president, Nikki Leigner. Attendant at the homecoming was Darlene Davis.

We went to Wright-Patterson Air Base on our sophomore class trip. Our sponsor was again Mr. Booher, our president, Pat Trisel. Our sophomore attendant was Trenna Lantz.

Our junior class play, "Heading for a Wedding," was a big success under the direction of Mr. Booher. The class president was Ronald Stetler, and the junior attendant was Dorothy Fisher. Elected to go to Girls' State and Boys' State were Dorothy Fisher and Leland Bollenbacher. (The classes of Willshire and Rockford joined and became the first class to graduate from Parkway)

Our senior year proved to be the best year of all. Mr. Ted Hakes was our sponsor and Diane Kuhn was our class president. Since we had no class trip, we had no money making projects except our class play, "The Whole Truth." Trenna Lantz was senior attendant and Mary Rodriguez was homecoming queen.

PROPHECY

This is the story of two spinsters concerning their life-long-sought-after trip to Hawaii as related by the spinsters Nichole Leighner and Deatra Riley.

On a beautiful rainy morning in the year 2000, we left Fort Wayne in a new deluxe C.R.A.S.H. AIR-LINER, piloted by the capable Lisle VanTilburg and assisted by his co-pilot Dick Stewart. As we sat in those cushiony hard seats, we rang for the cute stewardess, Mary Allmandinger, and asked her for pillows to make us more comfortable. While waiting for the pillows, we noticed some well-known faces. For instance, there was the multi-millionaire, Tom Zizelman, sitting in front of us with his secretaries, Sharon Schumm and Becky Dellinger. To the right of us was the famous lipstick tester, Bill Snyder, with his associate and helper Barbara Barna. While we were further straining our eyes, we noticed in back of us the well-known silk stocking model Trenna Lantz and her designer Doug Dilbone. Finally our pillows arrived bearing the autographs of the internationally famous play-boy, Tom Robbins, and Noel Temple, the 1962 twist champion.

The stewardess then announced that we were landing in Hawaii. We were driven to our hotel by the taxi driver, James Zizelman. John Hawk, the doorman, and the bell-boy, Don Fisher, graciously took our luggage to our suite. While we signed the registration book, the manager, Tom Myers, said he hoped our stay would be pleasant. As we walked into our room, we noticed the maid, Donna Bollenbacher, sweeping the dirt under the rug.

After getting settled we decided we'd go for a swim. At the pool, life-guarded by Diane Kuhn and Frank Shindelkecker, we watched the performance of the famous synchronized swimming group, THE SWANS, directed by Judy Deitsch. As we were leaving the pool, we noticed a large crowd gathering. Of course, we had to see who it was. We were thrilled to find it was none other than the singing idol, Steve Alsbaugh, surrounded by fans and reporters which included the famous reporting team of FHS Thompson and Weisenborn.

We arrived back at the hotel in time to see the crowning of Mr. and Mrs. America, Gary Pierstorff and Sherrill Rutledge, respectively.

We then decided to turn in for a good night's rest so that we would be ready for the next day's activities.

Bright and early the next morning we went on an island tour guided by Dick Courtney. First we visited a pineapple plantation owned by Dale Fleming. His pineapple pickers, Jim Anderson, Ron Stetler, Marilyn Daugherty, Lorna Winkler, Don Hileman, and Ramona Champion, were busy picking pineapples. After the pineapple plantation, we toured a cattle ranch owned by Gary Fisher. The cowboys, David Roth, Marvin Schaadt, Cliff Garwood, Jerry Tumey, and Gary Henkle, were terribly tired for they had just finished the yearly cattle roundup.

Next on our tour, we traveled by boat piloted by Leland Bollenbacher to the exotic island of Mucky Mucky, where we saw beautiful gardens cared for by Bill Gibson, Ned Leutzenheiser, and Elmer Roehm. We went back to the main island of Hawaii and dressed for the weekly Luau at the Hopi Cabannia. During the Luau, we were entertained by hula dancers Martha Goodwin, Karen Anspach, Virginia Roehm, Dorothy Fisher, Janice Bollenbacher, Jane Strete, and Mary Rodriguez. Following the hula dancers' performance, came the traditional sword dancing. Dick Fickert, Jack Bolenbaugh, Tom Gibbons, Jon Shock, and Merrill Miller made up the troupes.

After the luau, we went to the famous Bamboo Night Club owned by Pat Trisel. We were seated by the head waiter Danny Williams. The shapely cigarette girl, Marianna Vining, tripped and fell into the lap of Joe King, the private eye from Surfside Seventy. Dinner music was provided by the world-renowned Mary Jane DeArmond. The master of ceremonies, Gary Deitsch, announced the Barbara Taylor dancers, made up of Suzann Werst, Patty Williams, Linda Marbaugh, Wilma Marese, Bonnie Miller, Marlene Schinnerer, Sharlene Secrest, and Judy Miller.

The next two weeks were just as enjoyable and fun-filled as the previously mentioned days. However, our money was running low and we decided to leave for the mainland by ship. We arrived back in Fort Wayne tired and broke, but happy.....and then the alarm clock rang and we realized that it was only a dream.

PARKWAY HIGH SCHOOL ALMA MATER
 We sing our praise to thee our high school
 Never to forget thy name.
 To the world we'll raise thy glory
 And ever strive to bring thee fame.
 Your black and gold we shall always see
 O'er ocean, land, or where e'er we may be,
 Alma Mater, praises be, our dear Parkway
 High.

PARKWAY HIGH SCHOOL FIGHT SONG

The gold and the black is our cry,
 We're fighting for our Parkway High,
 Now join in the song, as the black cats
 go on
 Rising to victory.

Now Panthers go on and attack,
 We're here with our gold and our black,
 We'll fight with our might, the Panthers
 tonight,
 As we go on to victory.

Charge on down and score that TD,
 We'll be proud as ever can be,
 Rebound, dribble, pass off that ball,
 Then pivot around, and shoot it and score.
 Everyone, let's cheer for our team,

Wednesday, February 21, Dick Wirmel and Dan Dell, representatives of the company made a survey of the Parkway School Building.

Mr. Boyd Granger, Parkway High School principal, is one of a number of area administrators attending the 46th annual principals' convention in St. Louis from February 23 through the 27.

Speaker for the Saturday evening banquet meeting will be George V. Allen, formerly United States Ambassador to Iran, Yugoslavia, India, and Greece. Allen was also Director of the U. S.
